4) Obtain Florida Department of Education Scholarship offered through third party Scholarship Funding Organizations (SFOs), if eligible.

- a. You may only apply for and receive one scholarship for each child, once the 2025-2026 applications become available. Monitor the SFOs website and/or your email if you have requested to be added to their notification list.
- b. The scholarships offered by both SFOs are identical and the school accepts and works with both SFOs. The Florida Legislature sets the funding amounts each year. These funding amounts have not yet been set for the 2025-2026 school year. In past years the funding amount shave never decreased but they have not always increased. The primary scholarships with last year’s funding amounts are:
 - Florida Tax Credit Scholarship (FTC)
 - 2024-2025 Funding Amounts for Lee County $7671 to $8369
 - Family Empowerment Scholarship for Educational Options (FES-EO)
 - 2024-2025 Funding Amounts for Lee County $7671 to $8369
 - Family Empowerment Scholarship for Students with Unique Abilities (FES-UA)
 - 2024-2025 Funding Amounts for Lee County $10,260 to $10,958
- c. The family is solely responsible for obtaining the scholarship for the student. The school is not permitted to be involved in or act in place of the parent/guardian in this process.

School Administered Medications

Please complete this form if your child will be taking prescription medication(s) during the school day. This form must be on file with the school on or prior to the first day medications are to be provided.

Medications must be provided to the school in prescription bottles with the student's name on the prescription. The school can only dose in the amount shown on the prescription.

All medications, except inhalers and EPI pens, will be kept in a locked portable medical container outside of the classroom. Medications will be provided to students in their classrooms by the staff member responsible for medication distribution.

Classrooms will provide a secure location for inhalers and EPI pens which must be available for immediate response.
